Timeline for grievance, Trike Shook, Cheboygan County Jail, Inmate #20827. 870 Main Street, Cheboygan, MI 49721

September 22, 2023 is when the officer started coming by cell 11, Trike's cell. There were 2 arresting officers, Darrin and Dale Kolatski. In this timeline, Kolatski refers to Darrin Kolatski. Officer Kolatski was coming by Trike's cell multiple times a day, staring at Trike, making faces at him, pointing at him. During these first couple days is when Trike said something to Kolatski, himself, about the harassment. Kolatski said that he can say or do anything he wants, and everyone would believe him over the inmates.

Kolatski had been by multiple times a day, except weekends. He continued to behave in the same manner.

Oct 5, 2023: Kolatski came into the cell, waking Trike up yelling and screaming at him, tearing blankets from him while he was asleep.

Oct 11, 2023 - Kolatski enters cell 11 again. Trike was removed and put in a holding cell after a couple minutes. Kolatski performs a search of the cell, all of Trike's and other inmates' items, confiscating many things. He also takes liberty to look through Trike's legal papers. At this point Trike is being removed. He was kept in a holding cell for 7 hours. Then he was written up for having a spork with the prongs ripped off (used for stirring tea). He lost video visits and kiosk texting privileges until Oct 19, 2023.

While Trike was in holding, Kolatski came by the holding cell also. Trike said something about them both being involved in the same case, and it is not right that he is the one going through Trike's things. Kolatski smiles and says, "Maybe I did, maybe I didn't" And that is after Trike saw him beginning the search.

After that, Trike requested to be moved to a different cell. He had never been moved because of a disciplinary action, not once. He's been through different cells because of running out of space after being transferred out of this jail and into another for a short term while resolving another case from St Clair County. He requested to be moved upon return because he was uncomfortable. Apparently someone had told cell 11 that he wasn't coming back, and someone had took some of his things. Trike did not tell any officers about that, just that he would rather just be moved to another cell. Also, those cell mates were tired of getting the backlash of the harassment by Kolatski. Trike was moved to cell 5.

On the morning of 10-13-23, Kolatski comes by again. Trike had a couple hard-boiled eggs leftover from breakfast that he was saving for lunch. This has never been an issue in the past. Kolatski reaches through the bars and takes them, presumably to throw out.

All of the inmates in both cells 11 and 5 agree they have never seen such behavior and agree that Trike was getting harassed and targeted by Kolatski, and agreed to go on record as witnesses. Corporal Mike Vieau also agreed that seems to be the case, but said there is nothing he can do about it. On a previous occasion Cpl Cronk also commented that Kolatski seems to be targeting Trike on a personal level. Officer Potter also pointed out that Kolatski was incorrect on the police report saying that Trike was uncooperative once at the police station. Potter says that Trike was obedient and respectful, following all the rules.

Ultimately Trike lost all communication privileges until he was bailed out on November 24, 2023. The harassment continued through then, but Trike was not able to communicate out exactly what was happening.

Note: This timeline was prepared by friend to Trike, Elizabeth Ziolkowski. All information was communicated via text or phone call to Elizabeth until the point of privileges being removed.
